CKI to acquire 50% interest of a Wind Energy Company in Portugal

(2 October, 2015 – Hong Kong)

Cheung Kong Infrastructure Holdings Limited ("CKI") announced today that it has entered into an agreement to pay a shares consideration of approximately EUR144 million (approximately HK$1.25 billion) to acquire 50% interest of Iberwind - Desenvolvimento e Projectos, S.A., a wind energy company in Portugal.

Completion is subject to approval from the Portuguese Competition Authority and is expected to take place by the end of 2015.

When this transaction is completed, CKI will become a new player in Portugal's energy sector alongside a number of Asia Pacific investors, such as First State from Australia, State Grid Corporation of China and China Three Gorges Corporation from China, as well as Marubeni from Japan.
