Three Cheung Kong Hotels in China Named “Best Business Hotels”

(8 December, 2008 – Hong Kong) Sheraton Chengdu Lido Hotel, Grand Hyatt Beijing and Sheraton Shenyang Lido Hotel, all hotels owned by Cheung Kong (Holdings) Limited (“Cheung Kong”, were ranked the first among “Best Business Hotels” in Chengdu, Beijing and Shenyang respectively by “Business Traveller China” magazine.

Cheung Kong’s China hotels have been repeatedly recognized by the “Business Traveller China Travel Awards”. Sheraton Chengdu Lido Hotel has received accolades for the past four consecutive years since the awards were first launched; and Grand Hyatt Beijing and Sheraton Shenyang Lido Hotel have won awards for the third and second year respectively.

“Business Traveller” is one of the most influential business travel magazines, publishing nine regional editions around the world. Since its debut in 2002, “Business Traveller China” has been well received by the tourism industry and frequent travellers to major cities in China. This is the fourth year that “Business Traveller China” magazine has hosted its travel awards. The best hotels in various cities in China were selected through readers’ polls in the July/August and September/October issues of the magazine.
