

Li Jiange

Chancellor of Guangdong Technion – Israel Institute of Technology

Born in 1949 in Nantong City, Jiangsu Province, Mr. Li Jiange studied in Nantong Middle School in Jiangsu Province, after which he studied at Nanjing Normal University majoring in mathematics, and then in Graduate School, Chinese Academy of Social Science majoring in Quantitative and Technical Economics. After his graduation, he held several posts in the central authorities, working as Research Fellow at Development Research Center of the State, Deputy Director General of Policy Research Office of the State Planning Commission, Deputy Director General and then Director General of the Department of Policy and Regulation of the State Economic and Trade Commission, Chief of Staff of the Securities Commission of the State Council, Vice Chairman and then Executive Vice Chairman of China Securities Regulatory Commission, Vice Minister of the State Council Office for Restructuring the Economic System and Vice President (Vice Minister level) of Development Research Center (DRC) of the State Council. Since he left the government in August 2008, Mr. Li served as the vice chairman of Central Huijin Investment Co., Ltd, Chairman of China International Capital Corporation Limited (CICC), Chairman of ShenYin & WanGuo Securities co., Ltd., Chairman of Shenwan Hongyuan Securities co., Ltd. He is concurrently Professor and Supervisor for Ph.D. students at the Graduate School of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and Renmin University of China. He is also Professor at PBC School of Finance, Tsinghua University, Co-head of National Institute of Financial Research of Tsinghua University, and chairman of the Board of Sun Yefang Fiscal Science Foundation.