

Systems Analyst /Analyst Programmer

(Ref.: SA/CKHH)

The Group Information Services Department, located in Hunghom, strives to serve the system needs of Head Office and is responsible for coordinating the information technology related services within the CK Hutchison Group.

Responsibilities:

- Manage software development process cycle, including requirement gathering, development, testing and release management
- Participate in the development, performance test and system integration test for ERP Cloud Modernization projects
- Provide technical solutions and ongoing support to Oracle Applications and automation tools
- Contribute to ERP Cloud project implementation and deliver services to business

Requirements:

- University graduate or equivalent in computing related disciplines
- Minimum of 2 years of relevant experience
- Strong programming skills in Oracle Forms & Reports, BI Publisher, RESTful API, SOAP, Linux scripting, PowerShell or VBA programming (MS Excel macros)
- Experience in Oracle E-Business Suite / Oracle Fusion Cloud or knowledge with automation tool UiPath will be an advantage
- A quick learner with strong organization and communication skills
- A team player with good interpersonal skills and a 'can-do' attitude
- Attentive to details and committed to meeting deadlines
- Proficiency in both written and spoken English and Chinese
- Fresh graduates with strong potential will also be considered

Salary and benefits will be commensurate with experience and competence. Please forward detailed resume with indication of expected salary quoting our reference to recruit@ckh.com.hk