

Group Legal Counsel

(Ref.: GLC/CKHH)

The Group Legal Department is responsible for overseeing the Group's legal, regulatory and compliance affairs. With the growth of our global businesses, we are seeking a highly motivated professional to join our legal team.

Responsibilities:

- Draft, review and negotiate a variety of commercial documents, including bank agreements, service agreements and vendors' contracts etc.
- Provide legal advice and support to other departments of the head office as well as subsidiary companies under the Group
- Ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations, as well as internal policies and procedures
- Assist in developing and implementing legal policies and procedures
- Participate in cross-functional teams to provide legal support for various initiatives, including M&A and strategic partnerships
- Liaise with external legal counsels and regulatory parties where necessary

Requirements:

- Bachelor degree in Law or related disciplines
- At least 8 years of post-qualified experience as a qualified lawyer in an internationally recognized jurisdiction
- Good academic qualification with solid legal training and experience
- Experience in M&A, corporate finance and general commercial transactions, as well as knowledge of the Listing Rules and Takeovers Code would be a definite advantage
- Superb drafting skills and excellent interpersonal skills
- Able to work as a team member under tight time constraints
- Excellent command of written and spoken English and Chinese

Salary and benefits will be commensurate with experience and competence. Please forward detailed resume with indication of expected salary quoting our reference to recruit@ckh.com.hk