Harbour Plaza 8 Degrees awarded The Best Designer Hotel 2009

Harbour Plaza 8 Degrees has stunned the hotel industry with “The Best Designer Hotel 2009” award that it gained at the Travel Fair (Guangdong International Tourism and Culture Festival’s 2009 Star Hotels Show) recently held in Guangzhou, while the hotel is still celebrating its opening a month ago.

Harbour Plaza 8 Degrees’ distinctive design, including its renowned optical illusion lobby, has won the hearts of many who expressed their adoration through voting on participating various public travel communication channels both on and off-line at the fair organized by the Tourism Administration of Guangdong Province and the GZL International Travel Service Co, Ltd.

The Fair, held at Poly World Trade Center Expo (Pazhou) Guangzhou, has attracted travel service providers worldwide including over 300 international hotels and hotel groups and more than 800 exhibitors including over 1,000 international associations from Australia, Russia, South America, Chile, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, Macau and major cities in Mainland China. The awards were based on various aspects including overall service quality. Other award categories in the 2009 Star Hotels Show consisted of Most Popular Star Hotel, Most Attractive Star Hotel, Most Characteristic Hotel, Most Romantic Star Hotel, New Hotel Star and Star Resorts Hotel.

“We are very proud of our achievements during such a short period of time and look for many more to come” says General Manager, Christina Cheng. “More so, I am so happy and fortunate to be working alongside such an exceptional group of people who have and will continue to bring a kindred spirit to the hospitality industry.”
