Cheung Kong Named “Best Hotel Owner’s Representatives of China”

Cheung Kong (Holdings) Limited’s (“Cheung Kong”) hotels in China received seven accolades at the 6th China Hotel Starlight Awards.

This year, four of the five “Best Hotel Owner’s Representatives of China” awards were presented to members from the owners’ representative team of Cheung Kong’s hotels in China.

The award recipients were Chief Representative of Cheung Kong’s Beijing office, Mr. James K. Wong (Grand Hyatt Beijing Owner’s Representative); and Cheung Kong’s Business Development Managers – Mr. Tommy Hui (Metropark Lido Hotel Beijing Owner’s Representative); Mr. Casey Lee (Sheraton Shenyang Lido Hotel Owner’s Representative), and Mr. Kenneth Chu (Sheraton Chengdu Lido Hotel Owner’s Representative).

Other awardees included the Sheraton Shenyang Lido Hotel and the Sheraton Chengdu Lido Hotel. They were both named the “Top 10 Business Hotels of China”, while the Metropark Lido Hotel in Beijing was selected as one of the “Top 10 Themed Hotels of China”.

Over the years, Cheung Kong’s hotels in China have received a number of prestigious national and international awards.

The Grand Hyatt Beijing at Beijing Oriental Plaza has won over 100 awards since it opened its doors. For seven years, the hotel has been selected by Business Traveller Asia-Pacific as the “Best Business Hotel in Beijing”. It has also been named by DestinAsian as the “Best Hotel in Beijing” for five consecutive years.

Sheraton Chengdu Lido Hotel and Sheraton Shenyang Lido Hotel have also been selected by Business Traveller China as the “Best Business Hotels” in Chengdu and Shenyang for six and four consecutive years respectively.

The aim of the China Hotel Starlight Awards is to recognize the remarkable achievements of hotels and their executives in China. The finalists were chosen by a judging committee of industry professionals. Media evaluation and results of a public poll were also considered.
